

Day of Action on Migration and Refugees

Tuesday, 16 June 2026

As part of World Refugee Week

In collaboration with the Migration Scholars Solidarity and Resistance Network (MSSARN)

We warmly invite you to our 2nd Day of Action on migration, taking place on 16 June 2026. The focus of the day will be on the issue of displacement.

From 14.00 Foyer, Oettingenstraße 67

Installation: “Climate Change and Migration: A Question of Responsibility” –
(Veronica Weileder, Mila Esté Flores)

Information booths: Kartentausch, Politik AG (Student Council, discussion on statelessness using the example of Palestinians, podcast listening station, Bellevue di Monaco, Seebrücke, drinks and more!

Podcast studio, Room 1.38 - (Solvej Katzameier, Jarno Wanner, Victoria Enzwieser and Louisa Moreth)

14.30 – 15.30: Discussion Groups (in German)

Campaigning against deportations. Discussion with Astrid Schreiber and Hannah Sommer from Münchner Flüchtlingsrat (Seminar “Deportations and ‘voluntary’ return”) Room 0.67

Contesting Categories: People on the Move (Seminar “Migration and Borders”) Room 1.31

15.30 – 16.00 Break

16.00 – 17.00 Discussion Groups (in German)

Refugee social work under pressure: Impact of new laws and currently planned cuts (Beatrice Odierna) Room A004

Climate Change and Migration: A Question of Responsibility: Artist Talk with Veronica Weileder, Mila Esté Flores and Magnus Treiber R.027

17.00 – 18.00 Drinks and Food (Fachschaft)

18.00 – 19.30 Film and Discussion (English)

When the Water Horse Seeks a New Home

(Indonesia 2026, 25 mins, original version with subtitles)

Following discussion with filmmaker Andrianus “Oetjoe” Merdhi, Room - BU 101

This documentary captures the maritime journeys of Rohingya refugees navigating the Andaman Sea. It introduces the audience to the human dimension of Rohingya displacement and raises questions about human movement, loss and resilience

Invitation to a lecture by Dawit Woldu on Thursday, 18 June, 12.00–14.00

Eritrean Refugees and Asylum Seekers in the US – Challenges and Achievements

Lecture by Dawit Woldu (University of Houston – Clear Lake, USA)

Seminar “Understanding Eritrea?” / Project “Climate Change and Migration”, LMU Sustainability Fund

Room 1.31

