

New Directions in
Active Aging and Age-Friendly Culture in India and Germany

UNIVERSITÄT
HEIDELBERG
ZUKUNFT
SEIT 1386

Certificate of Participation

Winter School 2017

Usman Mahar has successfully participated in the interdisciplinary Winter School "Images of Age and Ageing" as part of the DAAD- project "New Directions in 'Active Ageing' and 'Age-friendly Culture' in India and Germany." The Winter School took place from October 10th to October 19th at the Institute of Gerontology in Heidelberg, Germany.

The Winter School included the following topics:

- Participation in the 8th European Film Festival for Generations
- German health care system and physical activity in old age
- Psychology and politics
- Subjective ageing
- Cultural discourse on the subject of age in India and Germany
- Field research at public screenings and interviews with elderly people and experts
- Presentation of field research and results in groups of international teams

Heidelberg, 24th October 2017

Prof. Dr. Andreas Kruse
Director, Institute of Gerontology
Universität Heidelberg

Dr. Michael Doh
Director, European Film
Festival of Generations